"Frederic is an excellent manager. He brings a lot of value to an organization. Excellent in UI and web base solutions, he understands what users want and how to deliver product. Frederic is always open to suggestions. It was a great pleasure to work with him in various big projects. One of the most professional people I have ever worked with. If you have an opportunity to work with Frederic in any capacity, I would highly recommend it. "

— Patrick Urso, managed Frédéric indirectly at Travelport

"En plus d'un réel talent créatif et d'une exigence rare dans la qualité de son travail, Frédéric fait preuve d'un sens aigu des responsabilités, tant individuelles que collectives dans une équipe. Il est rare d'avoir l'opportunité de recruter des collaborateurs qui font preuve d'une réelle maturité professionnelle et humaine et qui gagnent d'emblée votre confiance par le sérieux et la qualité de leur travail. Frédéric fait aussi preuve d'une remarquable autonomie et capacité d'adaptation. Avoir Frédéric dans son équipe est un atout professionnel important mais aussi et surtout un réel avantage humain."

— Jerome Thil, managed Frédéric indirectly at Coelis

"Frédéric was an instrumental member involved in the re-design of the new user interface for Travelport Rooms and More. Everyone involved in the product agreed that it was one of the best designs they had seen for a long time and that it was very close to the strategic new look for the wider Travelport product set. Frédéric was very easy to work with and was incredibly diligent in working towards the end goal. This is a fantastic achievement - thank you for getting Rooms and More ahead of the game!"

— James Loar, worked directly with Frédéric at Coelis

"I have had the pleasure of working with Frederic for the past year within the Sprice organisation. Frederic has brought unique design skills to the team and has applied those skills effectively to the products. He is a valuable team member and contributes to the success of the product through his attention to detail and problem solving skills. I would not hesitate to have Frederic on a product development team in the future."

"Frédéric is a stellar designer. After working for the company in the past, on contract, we brought him back in to assist with UX and design in our mobile app, as well as to redesign the UI on a product we had launched 6 months prior that was in desperate need of a rework. He was able to come in, get a handle on what users needed, and pull things together that met the needs of both the business and the end users."

— Brian Batts, managed Frédéric indirectly at Coelis

"Frederic is a colleague as we like to have, it brings a lot of dynamics in the group and its motivation is contagious. This is a very organized person who likes things work as planned, but it is also able to adapt easily to change. He has many ideas and do not hesitate to share them. I would be happy to work with Fred again."

"Frederic is one of the most passionate and dedicated people I've been given the opportunity to work with. He leaves nothing to detail, and will both consider customer input and bring his own touch to the plate. I would work with him again anytime."

"Fred helped us during the proof of concept stages of the Point of Sale product created for the distribution of international rail tickets. He was in charge of managing the development team during several sprints and helped us to integrate an already-existing design. Fred was always able to create a calm air of authority and his help in creation of the proof of concept was as invaluable as it was welcome. I would have no hesitation in working with Fred again, if the opportunity arose; and I would be happy to acknowledge his professionalism, dedication and tenacity, all of which were gratefully received. "

He is a very Focused colleague that really wants to do the best he can to improve the game. His contribution to elaborate, with the game designers, the complete blueprint of our game was a real breakthrough that helped the whole team to progress and picture the final version of the game screens. His background in the web made him precise and he really enjoyed designing the best possible UI both technically and visually speaking In addition, his experience as a freelance made him really respectful of any deadline that has been quite welcome during “hard” times. "I had a very pleasant professional relationship with Frederic, who is a real digital artist as well as an expert in web design. After all these years, I have rarely found such a detail-oriented graphist, always curious and questioning himself and his techniques, leaving Macromedia and Adobe suites for the hard way with open source software only. Frederic is also a trustworthy person and a cheerful workmate. I wish him more and more success and projects he can express his talent with."
